Advancing the School through Charitable Giving

The generosity of the Matthews Hall community of parents, alumni and friends enables the school to move forward in the areas of capital improvements, new academic and co-curricular programs and student financial assistance. As with most independent schools, the provision of these enhanced services, facilities and programs depends upon the level of charitable giving. Although always voluntary, it is hoped parents will include Matthews Hall as a deserving recipient to their annual or special charitable giving.

Donations to Matthews Hall can be made through gifts of cash, gifts-in-kind, bequests, gifts of life insurance, capital assets and others. All are eligible for charitable tax receipts issued by Matthews Hall.
